

How much does this tour package cost and what is included in the price?

Commonground Entertainment is offering you and your students a complete performing tour package. The price for this package is 1390.00 $ travelling in the summer of 2008.

Included in the price are:

- 8 nights in hotel accommodation in double room occupancy in an at least 3 star hotel.
- Two performances with professional sound system. The venues will be chosen together with you by our artistic director Jill Gorrie according to the standard and style of your performance.
- Bus transportation within Germany on private tour bus. (This does not include a pick up at the airport of your city of origin!)
- Extensive sightseeing program, including at least two local tour guides.
- 11 meals; 8 times rich European breakfast and 3 times dinner in a typical local restaurant
- English speaking tour guides through out the entire trip.
- Champagne reception upon arrival.
- The Commonground tour book with lots of information on the visited cities and sights as well as a tour itinerary, useful travel advises and some language tips.
- All service charges and taxes.

What is expected of you?

- You are expected to have a performance ready of about 25 minutes rehearsed and ready to go.
- You must bring your own costumes.
- You must attend all press calls during the performing tour.
- It would be best to send a DVD and the music of your performance as far in advance as possible to Commonground Entertainment, 810 W. 183rd. St. Apt 4B, New York NY 10033.

We will happily assist you with your flight arrangements. Our partner Lufthansa City Centre Frankfurt is an expert in finding the best group deals from the USA to Europe.

It is also very well possible to book your own flights individually. We will arrange in that instance individual airport pick ups for you, which will be included in the package price. This allows you to use credit cards and possibly frequent flyer miles.
